“DUO”

Concept

“DUO” – What is it?

- Ingredients focus concept with a strong line of story-telling and a touch of patriotism;
- Showcasing the best of Chinese produces and evolved century-old craftsmanship;
- Seafood and Steak concept featuring ONLY local Chinese produces – Fresh seafood from Qingdao and house-aged prime cuts from Shandong and Hebei regions;
- Award winning wine list representing the best of Chinese wine making artistries.

“Duo” – what kind of food and drink?

- Grill house style restaurant;
- Focus ONLY local Chinese produces – Fresh seafood from Qingdao and house-aged prime cuts from Shandong and Hebei regions;
- Open kitchen featuring high temperature grill;
- Climate controlled meat aging room and butcher block;
- All glass water tanks presenting the freshest catches for the day;
- Passionately selected Chinese wine collection featuring international wine critics’ and house sommelier’s recommendations;
- Stunning bar serves artisan cocktails feature local ingredients and Chinese spirits;
- Selection of Qingdao’s craft beer.

“DUO” – Chinese vinery

- China is poised to become the next big superpower in wine - and not just because it already ranks as the fifth-largest wine market in the world and is on pace to become the world's largest (as measured by total annual consumption) by the year 2021.
- More impressively, the nation's domestic producers have emerged as a force in their right. There are now more than 450 wineries scattered around the nation, in 12 different wine regions of varying climates and growing conditions.
- Here's a list of 12 Chinese wine regions.

Ningxia, Shandong, Hebei, Xinjiang, Shanxi,
Yunnan, Liaoning, Heilongjiang, Tianjin, Jilin,
Gansu, Henan

“DUO” – Chinese wine

- September 18, 2019 was a historic moment for the fine wine world when the Rothschild family of Chateau Lafite-Rothschild received title to their winery in China’s Shandong peninsula near the city of Penglai. The first commercially released wine from Long Dai, a 2017 blend of cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc and marselan.
- The Rothschilds and their team at Domaines Barons de Rothschild (Lafite), or DBR, have spent more than a decade constructing what must be the best winery in China, leading the way for the future of fine Chinese wine. China is now the fifth biggest market in the world for wine and I estimate it will be No. 1 in the next five years.
- “We believe in the future of Chinese wine and Chinese tourism in places such as Penglai,” said Saskia de Rothschild, head of DBR. This wine region begins just a few minutes from the Yantai wine region and continues for about 220 kilometers to Qingdao – it clearly could live up to its local nickname of the “Napa Valley of China.”
- Long Dai to focus on local China sales

“DUO” – China prime cut

'Wagyu Bio-Tech' was established in May 2008 for the breeding, production of beef and the sale of semen, embryos and breeding animals. The key site is in Beijing Huairou District. Breeding takes place at another two properties at Chiping and at Laixi in Shandong District.

Wagyu Bio-Tech became members of the Australian Wagyu Association in 2011. This enabled the registration of progeny which were introduced from Australia as frozen embryos through Global Reproduction Services.

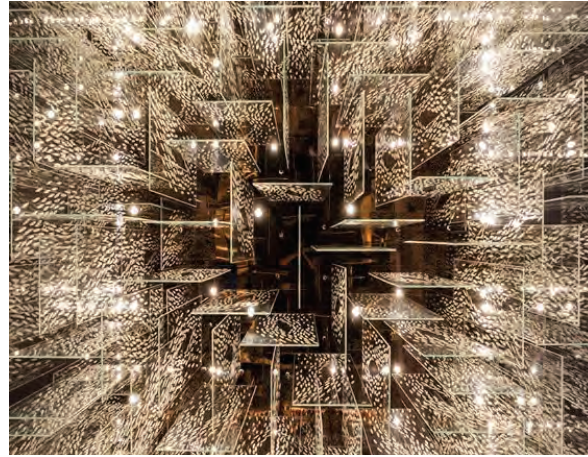

According to estimates from the USDA Foreign Agricultural Service, China is the fourth largest beef producing country in the world behind the U.S., Brazil and the European Union. 2018 Chinese beef production is estimated at 7.3 million metric tons, 58 percent of projected U.S. beef production of 12.4 million metric tons. China has an estimated total cattle herd of 96.85 million head in 2018, slightly larger than the current U.S. herd of 94.4 million head.

Flame concept derived from the cooking process, especially usually seen with wood cooking. Glass material to echoes with the center feature glass installation as well as the glass dividers. Also name 'duo' and the duality / connection of twos as well as a connection. 火焰的概念来源于烹饪过程,使用玻璃材质,呼应与餐厅中心特色玻璃装置以及玻璃隔板。同时因为餐厅命名为“DUO”,也有二元的连接的双重性。

Details (to be completed)

Who are our competitors?

S.W.O.T. analysis?

How does it work?

Motivation (to be completed)

How does it compare?

“Qing” – What is it?

- A dynamic venue for cocktails and tapas
- Three individual bars showcase a admirable whiskey, wine and cocktail selection served by an award-winning mixologist and features an outdoor lounge
- Trend setting destination for house-made infused drinks with an Asian twist or a night of live music and dancing
- Special features include live musicians and DJs

- While not offering full courses, the food menu must encourage social eating, late night snacking and “skipping dinner”
- 12-15 menu items
- Seamless integration of favourite bar bites, with an emphasis on seafood and meat with an optional whiskey or wine pairing
- A selection of local dishes done in sophisticated, chef’s interpretation
- Global bar staples, food that world weary travellers rely on having in hotel bar
- Signature complimentary “bar snack” that is a “must try” and talked about highlight of a guest visit to the bar

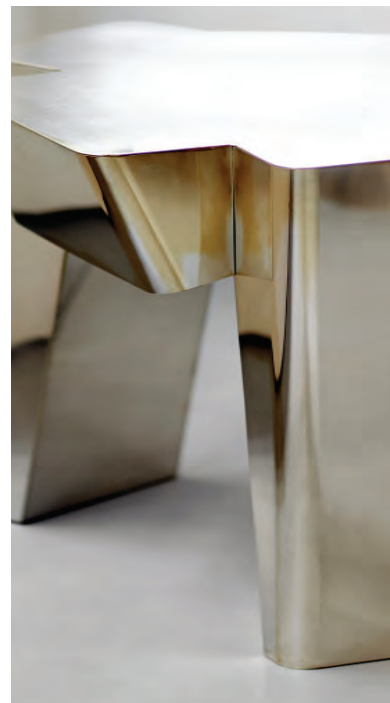

“Qing” – what kind of food?

“Qing” –advantages?

- Elevated freedom of choice with three individual signature bars
- Entertainment compound with drinks, foods, live music, DJ and dance
- Outdoor lounge
- Bring local/regional food and drink cultures to the hotel
- Generate energy and traffic and ambience to the hotel (nights and weekends which are usually slow in office areas)
