STUDIO
MUNGE

An aerial photograph of a desert landscape featuring several agave plants. The plants are arranged in a roughly circular pattern, with a larger one in the center and smaller ones around it. The ground is sandy and textured. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent light blue filter.

WE DO MORE THAN INTERIOR DESIGN.

We think beyond walls and floors and imagine the shared experience.

WE CREATE MORE THAN PRETTY PICTURES.

Studio Munge creates the energy that audiences respond to and brings businesses to life. Since 1997, we have been positively impacting the communities and cities we design in.

WE IMAGINE EXCITING SPACES.

Spaces that people want to be a part of. We have a keen insight, foresight, and passion for the flow of design that brings a space to life.

THE AGAVE AZUL

The Agave Azul

Native to Mexico, the Agave Azul (blue agave) is admired for its metallic blue hue, unique to the world.

The Agave Fields

The Harvest

The Piña

The Agave Azul

The Agave Sap

Incredibly versatile, the Agave plant was prized by Aztecs for its nutritious sap (aguamiel), strong leaves that could be turned into textiles (ixtle) and building material, and, of course, Tequila. Made from the heart of the Weber Azul agave plant (piña), this spirit has been mass produced since the 1600s and is one of the first indigenous distilled spirits of North America.

Árbol de la vida

Tree of Life is a traditional theme of pottery and ceramic sculpture created in central Mexico, specifically in Metepec. Originally depicting teachings of religion, this tradition has evolved to include celebrations of trees with deeper meanings of life and death or welcoming of the spring season.

The God of Pulque, Lord of Healing

In Mexican mythology, El Centzon Tōtōchtin are a group of 400 Divine Rabbits who were children of Mayahuel-the goddess of agave plant, and Patecatl-the god of Pulque-the prehispanic alcoholic beverage made from the fermented sap of agave. The rabbits traveled throughout the lands visiting lively parties and gatherings while feasting and spreading the gospel of intoxication. It is said that when drinking agave spirits, the 400 Rabbits inhabit us all.
